Emilio Nanni's creativity and experience have come together in Alunna, the ideal companion to the Maestro table, with which it shares the inspirational and conceptual blueprint. In the Alunna chair, the contrast between the fine structure of the base and the soft seat creates a striking marriage: pure, refined, sophisticated. The four tubular legs connect together, echoing the design of the Maestro's legs, but adopting a less radical, less angular solution: the metal finishes highlight their delicate intertwining and set off the padded upholstered seat. The stitching detail and two-tone upholstery give Alunna an eloquent appeal, making it a desirable object for any room of the home as well as an embellishing addition to the office. Seat height 46cm.
