CORDIA LOUNGE CHAIR

Designed by Jehs & Laub, the Cordia Lounge chair is part of a collection of chairs and stools. Cordia is an exceptionally cosy easy chair, featuring a voluminous down cushion in a smooth, thin shell. A special feature is the folded fabric on the armrests. On a polished or lacquered swivel base, Cordia Lounge stands with its four feet firmly on the ground. Cushions and shell are available in fabric or leather, or a combination of both. The lounge aspect of this Cordia family member comes not least from its built-in tilting mechanism, allowing for different sitting positions. The Cordia Lounge chair is available in fabric and leather, with removable seat shells and the option of a high or low back-rest. When styled with the matching footstool, Cordia is ideal for long conversations as well as for short breaks. Seat height is 43cm.
